NO. 4

LANCASTER.

Mr. G. S. Gaines has begun to build a handsome residence on Danville avenue.

Mr. Chas. J. Doty, of Lexington, is the guest of his brother-in-law, Mr. J. J. Walker.

Mrs. J. R. Mount, of La Grange, is with her brother, R. E. McRoberts, and she is still a good democrat.

The beautiful weather has put the farmers to work and large crops will be cultivated if they are not called from home to unseat the usurper at Frankfort.

Mr. C. B. Engleman reports a difficulty near Paint Lick, between Dave Henry, a white man, and Bill Mason, colored, in which Henry was shot several times with a knife, but he did not know how seriously.

The Lancaster Lyceum Company has engaged Gen John B. Gordon to lecture here May 24th, during the meeting of the G. A. R., on "The Last Days of the Confederacy." He will lecture at Stanford May 25. This will be a rare opportunity to hear the grand old veteran.

Miss Lottie May McRoberts, only 11 years old, the bright and gifted daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. McRoberts, was awarded first prize by the Courier Journal over a number of competitors for the best essay on current events. She promises to attract attention in the literary world.

Mrs. H. M. Ballou, W. A. Arnold, and T. C. Guley have not been well for some time. The latter writes to me as follows: "I have been in bed for four weeks and I feel as if I had been in the hospital. I could not have stood it this long. There is nothing in the democratic party too good for W. P. Walton. I love the paper on account of its fearlessness." Mrs. Wesley and Peyton performed an operation on Mr. R. H. Bateson at Saint Joseph Infirmary. We hope to see him at home in a few days.

Judge J. C. Hemphill, as administrator, and being one of the heirs, sold the Mrs. Kittle Leavell place adjoining this city on the Richmond road, containing a handsome residence and 90 acres of land, to Mr. J. S. Johnson, for $10,000, possession to be given Jan. 1, 1901. It is one of the most beautiful and valuable pieces of property in Central Kentucky.

Mr. J. A. Robinson bought a thoroughbred seven-months-old male Hereford calf of R. N. Watson, of Lebanon, for $120. Jailer Ross had a fine male to get gravel in its foot from which it suffered for a time, the flesh decaying and dropping off to the knee and the entire hoof coming off, when he killed it.

On Thursday and Friday some of the numerous warrants for unlawful sale of liquor, were called in the police court, but a legal battle followed in reference to the kind of warrants that would be valid and no trial was reached. It was finally agreed to pass them until this week and submit the question to Judge Sauley, as he would likely have to hear them any way if they were tried below. The people are hopeful that the matter will be settled at once and that all those upon whom warrants have been served by the marshal and who are living in open violation of law, will be punished sufficiently to force them to abandon such pursuits, and this can only be enforced by the law and not by holding up fines on a promise to pay or a promise to abandon the unlawful sale of whiskey.

Good citizens here are indignant over the conduct of W. S. Taylor and his gang. That he should defy the civil authorities by having soldiers to take men in disguise away from the civil authorities and issue a pardon for them before they have answered to a serious charge, is regarded as the work of a dangerous man, especially after agreeing to await and to abide by the judgments of the courts of the country, as to who is entitled to the seat which he now holds at the point of the bayonet. Matters are getting worse each day and as military is subordinate to the civil, sheriffs' posse should be summoned from every county in the State to enforce the law. Let our leaders beware. The division of the militia is just what Taylor and his gang want. If a clash comes in the military, Federal soldiers will be sent here and the result will be nothing short of the scenes of 1876, when Tilden was robbed of the presidency.

All the officers of the court were present Monday, when Judge Sauley took the bench. He delivered a full and complete charge to the following grand jury: Bright Herring, foreman, J. W. Simpson, James Hills, Noah Marsee, D. C. Pulliam, T. Leavelle, J. A. Wood, Frank Moss, P. E. Tuggle, S. B. Henry, J. B. Parks and H. C. Arnold. The following constitute the petit jury: Wm. George, Philip Dalton, B. F. Patten, W. B. Gooch, S. T. Davis, Hallie Randall, R. H. Ballard, Curtis Pierce, R. D. Scott, J. G. Hendrickson, Fred Stone, T. M. Arnold, T. L. Sanders, J. D. Ray, Homer Tinsley, Givens Terrill, Robert Long, A. R. Arnold, J. A. Stone, J. W. Elmore, E. M. Walker, S. B. Totten, Robt. Guley, J. H. Ralney. John Stone was fined $50 and given 10 days in jail for carrying concealed weapons. Demurrer was sustained to indictments against Ellen Reddy, for selling whiskey in a local option district, the indictment having been drawn under the general law. Mack Jennings, colored, was given two years in the penitentiary for breaking into a school house. Sam Francis, colored, was fined $100 for giving a drink of liquor on election day, to pay which he was sent to the work-house.

A LIFE size steel engraving of Gov. Goebel is being made in Chicago, of which 150 will be sold at $10. the amount over the cost to go to the monument fund. Mr. C. H. Williams was here yesterday accompanied by Mr. J. A. Yeager, of Boyle, and secured a number of subscribers. Others who want the picture can communicate with Percy Haley, at Frankfort. Mr. Yeager has gotten over $100 for the Goebel monument fund by $1 subscriptions.

Fritz Krueger has four teams and 10 men with scrapers, etc., digging away on foundation and cellar of the new brick building on corner Main and Church street.

A preacher wound up his services at Pine Hill a short time since with the following: "I have been preaching Jesus to you people for quite awhile, but it appears you need him—I preached to you for the next six months."

Assistant Postmaster Ramsey says if the business men will give proper encouragement by offering to mail all their matter at the postoffice he will have a night mail service established. Let our people give that promise and do it quickly.

Andrew Gentry, who works nights in the Livingston yard, sent a fellow-workman to carry some word to his wife. When the messenger knocked at the door Mrs. Gentry believed it to be a burglar or marauder and fired a shot through the door, the ball passing through the man's coat sleeve.

Judge R. G. Williams was in London with specimens of handwriting that appeared on the slips with which the jury wheel was stuffed. It is claimed that one of the handwritings was positively identified by numerous persons. It is claimed that something will drop within the next few days.

Robert Blythe, the darkey, charged with robbing the Gilberts Creek post-office, was held over by Commissioner White. The prisoner gave the name of an alleged partner whom the marshals are hunting. It is said that Blythe is the Negro, who was charged with attempting to poison the family of Hon. John D. Harris, of Madison.

Secretary Maret has a letter from the Lexington chamber of commerce extending an invitation to the Kentucky Telephone Association to hold their meeting in their city in April. They proffer the use of their fine hall and many other courtesies including the proverbial keys to the city. Lexington being a central point and for other good reasons the association will accept the invitation.

John, a 14 year old son of Joe Poynter, Livingston, in attempting to jump on a freight Sunday, fell under the wheels and had a foot crushed off. Drs. Pettus and Cooper amputated the foot at the instep. Mr. Poynter's family have been deluged with afflictions during the past 18 months. One son, a fireman, was killed in a wreck, another died at Corbin, one child died at Jellico and a daughter died last fall at Livingston. Mr. Poynter is a brother of D. C. and Wm. Poynter, of this place.

News has reached here of the death of W. D. McGuire last week of small-pox at Clark, Jefferson county, this State. "Dillard" McGuire was a native of this county and was a prosperous merchant of Goodland. He was a man of sterling worth and no man stood higher in his community. A half brother of the deceased went from this county a short time since to work for him and it is supposed the fatal disease was thus transmitted. Mrs. McGuire is at the point of death and other members of the family are stricken with the same disease.

George McCarty, the clever telegraph lineman, of Livingston, was here Thursday. Will McHargue has named his boy for Kentucky's great martyr. Bandmaster W. T. McClary was over at Crab Orchard Sunday. Pardom, will move to his new house in a few days. Mrs. J. W. Gilpin, Brodhead, continues very low of consumption. Lytle Adams is able to be around after a long siege of sickness. J. E. Cox was up Sunday to see his daughter, who is teaching here. Dr. Pennington is moving to his recently purchased property on Jones Avenue. Judge Fish has moved to the Williams property on Jones Avenue.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease, and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer $100 for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists.

HON. HARVEY HELM.

DISTRICT PAPERS FAVORABLE TO THE TALL SASSAFRAS OF THE ST. ASAPH.

Many Boyle county friends would be light to see Hon. Harvey Helm, the popular and big brained young Stanford lawyer, succeed in his ambition to be a delegate from this district to the Kansas City convention. He would size up splendidly with the tall timber at that notable gathering.—Danville Advocate.

Hon. Harvey Helm, the faithful and efficient county attorney of Lincoln, wants to go as a district delegate to the National democratic convention which will be held in Kansas City, July 4th. Search the ran of democracy from Cumberland's Peak to the Ohio and you can't find a better worker or a more liberal contributor for the upbuilding of our principles than the gentleman from our neighbor city of Stanford. Tall and handsome, with a striking physique and an intelligent and brainy look, he would make an ideal delegate. We rise to second his nomination, tender him our best services, yea, if need be, grease our tongue, pull off our collar and cravat, roll up our sleeves, huss up our pantaloons and go to work for his election.—Mt. Vernon Signal.

Frankfort and the Legislature.

The House defeated the bill to require investment companies to put up $50,000 security, 68 to 22.

The jail at Lexington is guarded by soldiers under command of Capt. Longmire, who obeys Gov. Beckham's orders.

The State College appropriation was cut to $60,000, half of which is to go to a girl's dormitory, and then passed the Senate.

Justus Goebel says: "We have arrested and will attempt to arrest only such men as we know we can legally hang."

The bill, requiring railroad companies to fence their lines as other property owners are required to do, was passed by the House 71 to 7.

At a "Senate Quorum Dinner" given by Senator Thomas, of Clark, Senator G. T. Farris responded to the toast: "Kentucky Womanhood."

The House passed a bill, 90 to 2, providing for the taxation of the capital stock of banks for State, county, city, town and taxing district purposes.

Justus Goebel sounds the keynote of the wish of every honest man, when he says: "I want no innocent man to suffer, and I shall see to it that no guilty man escapes."

Culton and Whittaker, who were in the jail at Frankfort, were taken through the country to Louisville, to avoid any attempt at rescue by the mountain soldiers.

As Senator Deboe would say, the Legislature will adjourn sine die without day next Tuesday and the members will cease drawing their per diem per day.—Cynthiana Democrat.

The bill, making it unlawful for railroad companies to transport people free of charge to any place, for the purpose of intimidating a public officer, was passed by a vote of 53 to 21.

The Frazier Pure Food bill passed by a unanimous vote in the House. This bill requires that all adulterated foods be labeled, showing the ingredients. It does not refer to proprietary medicines. It had passed the Senate.

By unanimous consent the Senate reconsidered the Triplett resolution appropriating $100,000 to equip a new State guard and to bring back the munitions of war from the mountain town of London and it passed 19 to 1.

Gov. Beckham has appointed Col. David R. Murray assistant adjutant general. As soon as the new State government is thoroughly organized Adj. Gen. Castleman will resign and Col. Murray will succeed him.

The House passed a bill to repeal the charters of the Farmers' Bank and Deposit Bank of Frankfort, and the Branch Bank of Kentucky, also located there. These banks were operating under an old charter which permitted them to take advantage of the Hewitt law. They will now have to pay tax as other State banks.

Does this mean Orr and Blair? When a man is sent to the Legislature from a democratic county and is elected to do what democrats want done and throws his influence and vote with the opposition, what are we to conclude? Why in times like these we are bound to conclude that he is bought—he has his hand in the L. & N. "bar." We call no names, but calculate that these "passions" will know their numbers.—Frankfort Democrat.

The Senate passed a bill providing for a constitutional amendment to do away with the secret ballot and return to the viva voce system. The House ought to do so immediately. The secret ballot system, against which we urged the constitutional convention, has turned out even worse than we predicted. It has been the Pandora box of all our woes and we will never have perfectly fair elections till we get back to the good old way of voting.

THE INTERIOR JOURNAL

STANFORD, KY., - MAR. 13, 1900

W. P. WALTON.

DISGUISED, the one with false whiskers and in the uniform of a private soldier and the other with moustache and goatee shaven and also in soldiers' uniform, Caleb Powers, ex-secretary of State, and John Davis, Taylor's private policeman on the capitol square at Frankfort, came near getting their carcasses, holding guilty consciences, into the 11th district and therefore as they thought, out of the chance of prosecution for the crime of being accessory before the fact in the assassination of Gov. Goebel. As our dispatches state, warrants had been issued against them and others, charging them with the heinous offense. Sheriff Sutor, of Franklin, attempted to serve the papers, but Taylor in his desire to shield all criminals, himself the chiefest of them all, had called his faithful militia to the rescue and denied the peace officers admission to the executive building in which the men were. That night at the connivance of Taylor, a squad of soldiers started East on the C. & O., with the conspirators dressed as militiamen to take them back to the mountains under their protection. They succeeded in getting away from Frankfort, but the flight of the scamps soon leaked out and Gov. Beckham ordered Sheriff Bosworth and Capt. Longmire's company of State guards, the captain having promised his allegiance, to intercept them at Lexington and take them at all hazards. Justus Goebel offered $1,500 for their capture, and when the train arrived at Lexington, the officers made a dash for it and secured their men before the lieutenant could collect his ideas. Attorney Walter S. Bronston identified Powers even in his disguise and greatly assisted the officers, who soon had them in jail and also the lieutenant who showed fight after it was too late for him.

Flight is not an entirely conclusive evidence of guilt, but it is regarded by the law as one of its surest evidences and in this case there seems to be no room for reasonable doubt that Powers is fully cognizant of the whole scheme of assassination and an aider and abettor of it. The shot was fired from his office and he was instrumental before and after the election in arousing the instincts of the meanest element of the population. He was among the first to say that if any attempt was made by the "Goebelites" to steal the election or to falsify the returns, trees would bear fruit that they had never been known to before. He seems to have been hoist on his own petard and the gallows he would have builded for others may be adorned with his own carcass. In addition to a pardon for the offense, signed by that purchaser of assassins who usurps the office of governor, Powers had $1,300 in money on his person, showing that he was out for a pretty long term. Davis also had money and a so-called pardon. The men were taken without a struggle and just as "easy as rolling off a log," proving that none of them will fight even to escape the gallows, which seems to loom up in the distance for these men. Taylor and the whole cowardly crew of murderers and cut throats. Powers claimed that he was fleeing to keep from lying in jail, awaiting a trial, and not from any feeling of guilt. He further said that the $100,000 reward would procure evidence sufficient to hang any man.

THE republican majority in the National House has for the third consecutive term given the seat to W. F. Aldrich, from the 4th Alabama district, over a democrat who had been honestly elected. This time it gives the seat of Gaston A. Robbins to him, just because it could and not because of right and justice. The republicans always decide against democrats no matter how good their claim and there is no particular row raised over it, because everybody knows before hand what they will do. But when democrats assert their rights and get their dues as in the cases at Frankfort, the goody goody roll their eyes in holy horror and the republicans rage worse than heathens.

THE Louisville Commercial heads a dispatch from Manchester saying that Mr. Wilson had not yet made a formal demand of Judge Brown for the office, thus: "Judge John H. Wilson dead." The wish may be father to the lie, but the rads will find that John Henry is the demmedest moist corpse they ever saw before he gets through with the business he has undertaken under the law.

It is quite suspicious that the McChord railroad bill was stolen, exactly as it was two years ago, just as it was to be enrolled. Fortunately, only a copy had been used in the House, and the original was fled away. This was found, and the bill was enrolled. Gov. Beckham has signed the bill and it is now a law.

THE Richmond Pentagraph and London Echo editors are like "two souls with but a single thought," etc., that is their editorial is so much alike that even Brers Adams and Dyche can not tell them apart.

TAYLOR has added another link to the long chain of lawless and revolutionary acts that have put to shame the efforts of any former usurper and procurer and defender of assassination. Acting under orders for him, the sheriff of Franklin was denied admission to the executive building to serve warrants on his accessories in the murder of Gov. Goebel, by his soldiers, who blocked the entrance with bayonets. This last act of infamy but strengthens the conviction of his own guilt and taken with the other evidences of it, is sufficient to hang him, much less warrant his arrest for complicity in the crime. The further fact that each of the men arrested at Lexington carried a pardon from him is another strong link in the chain of certainty of his guilt, which he has forged around his cowardly carcass. Let him be arrested and tried, and there is little doubt that his neck will pay the forfeit for the crime. It is high time we had done parleying with criminals. Taylor and the whole suspected crew should be in felon's cells to answer to the outraged law and if they can not be taken in one way they can in another. Dead or alive let the reward for their capture read.

GOV. BECKHAM's right to the office has been clinched again. Judge Emmett Field, of Louisville, suggested and selected by the republicans because of his eminent capacity as a lawyer and his unswerving integrity as a jurist, decided Saturday that the courts have no right to interfere in the matter, as the decision of the contest board and Legislature is final. The latter is a co-ordinate branch of the government, and the courts can not set aside or inquire into its actions. In matters where the Legislature is acting inside its jurisdiction; nor have the courts power to inquire into the doings of the Legislature, even where fraud and conspiracy are charged. The legislative journal can not be impeached, and its record must be taken as absolute. This is exactly what the democrats contended for and for which their lawyers argued. The result is another victory for the party, which, during all the present stirring and discreditable times to the State and country, has stuck to the law and in every contention been sustained by it. It is the republican leaders who have defied the law and substituted force and assassination.

TAYLOR has issued a statement to the people of Kentucky reviewing the contest for governor and declaring that a conspiracy has been formed to fasten the assassination of Gov. Goebel on the republican State officials, and that if he can prevent it the blood of innocent men shall not be shed. There is no danger of the innocent suffering. The great danger for Taylor and his cowardly band of assassins is that the guilty will suffer and it is for that reason he is so disturbed and so reckless in his disregard of law.

GOV. BECKHAM you have been declared the governor by the constituted authorities and we are looking to you to end the miserable business at Frankfort. Summon enough men to scourge Taylor and his measly band of assassins and cut throats from the temple and take possession. The people are with you.

THE LATEST.

LOUISVILLE, Feb. 13, 9 A. M.—No new arrests. Charles Finley was in Michigan Saturday conferring with State officials at Lansing. John Powers' whereabouts unknown, but is said to have started to Tennessee.

All quiet at Frankfort. Beckham will be conservative until appellate court acts and will then, if decision is favorable, take the State offices for force if necessary.

LOUISVILLE, March. 10.—Warrants were sworn out at Frankfort for the arrest of Caleb Powers, the republican claimant of the office of secretary of State, Charles Finley, former secretary of State, John L. Powers, of Barbourville, brother of Caleb and captain of the Barbourville company, which went to Frankfort with the mountaineers, William H. Culton, a clerk in the office of ex-auditor J. S. Sweeney and Capt. John Davis, a private policeman on Statehouse square. Culton was taken into custody. The men are charged as accessories before the fact to the willful murder of Gov. Goebel. The Commonwealth claims to have evidence that the assassin was selected from 25 men by the drawing of beans in the office of Caleb Powers, and that the one who drew the black bean fired the fatal shot.

T. B. Cromwell, the Cincinnati Frankfort correspondent, secured the evidence upon which the warrants for the assassin conspirators were sworn out. He got the points in Whitley and says that a number were in Powers' office when the shot was fired.

Capt. Longmire, has, under orders of Gov. Beckham, taken charge of all the arms and ammunition in Lexington belonging to the State guard companies. Capt. Calhoun, who commands another of the Lexington companies, will also recognize Gov. Beckham's orders. At Frankfort rumors that an attempt would be made to seize Gov. Beckham caused the mayor of Frankfort to station a heavy guard about the Capital Hotel.

LOUISVILLE, Mar. 12.—W. L. Hazell, steward at Lakeland Asylum, was arrested this afternoon charged with conspiracy in the assassination of Gov. Goebel. He is from Glasgow Junction. Caleb Powers and John Davis were brought to the jail here this afternoon. Capt. John Powers, of Barbourville, and Charles Finley are still at large and will likely keep themselves scarce.

The body of Gov. Goebel was assigned to the earth this afternoon. Speaking of the examining trials of the accused assassins, County Attorney Polsgrove, of Franklin, says "that none will be held as long as Taylor's militia or armed mob is in Frankfort. When those soldiers are withdrawn we will take up the matter, but not before."

ADDITIONAL LOCAL.

825-10.—Squire W. A. Coffey gave Hawk Jones, colored, 10 days in jail and fined him $25 yesterday for carrying concealed weapons.

A GERMAN named Langham, living near Ottenheim, had his hen house relieved of 16 chickens Sunday night and telephoned for Dink Farmer's bloodhounds, but he did not take them.

DEATH.—Mrs. Preston Beck, the aged mother of William and J. L. Beck, of this county, died in Wayne county of pneumonia. She was 76 years old and a splendid woman.

At the residence of Cicero Reynolds, uncle of the bride, in Stanford, at 7.30 last night, Mr. Oscar L. Haney, of Cincinnati, O., and Miss Annie Moore, of Danville, were made one by Rev. R. R. Noel.

THE St. Asaph Hotel is being papered and kalsomined throughout and when completed it will be a thing of beauty. Belden Bros. are doing the work and Manager Mark Hardin says they are giving entire satisfaction.

I AM now receiving my spring and summer goods and you are cordially invited to call in and see my handsome stock. In addition, I am agent for the great Globe Tailoring Co., of Cincinnati, and the Ryan Tailoring Co., of Chicago, and will take accurate measures for suits, pants or overcoats for those reliable firms. I can give you a nice suit for very little money. H. C. Ruple.

In the county court yesterday N. B. Hays qualified as administrator of Jno. Brackett and J. D. Moore of the estate of James F. Moore. Dr. J. B. Owsley resigned as trustee for John O. Reid and Dr. Reid qualified in his stead. Jno. S. Edmiston took the oath as police judge of Crab Orchard, Judge Bailey appointed Hall Anderson, J. E. Wright and J. S. Murphy to appraise and report on school site condemned by Supt. Garland Singleton in the Turnersville district.

CIRCUIT COURT adjourned Friday afternoon after disposing of a large number of cases. The grand jury returned 25 indictments and seven men were sent to the penitentiary during the term. Tom Welch, who had previously been given one year for stealing bottles, was tried for robbing Miss Dishon of 50 cents and had two more years added to his stay in Frankfort. Joe Claunch and George Dawson caught it for two years each for breaking into the barn of J. M. Carter and stealing therefrom. The Cincinnati Southern took an appeal in the case of Hall Anderson against it and J. E. Wright lost out in his suit against the Illinois Central. Sheriff S. M. Owens was allowed $22 for waiting on the court and Jailer G. W. DeBord $44. The jury claims amounted to $680, which was $593.93 more than Trustee G. L. Penny had and a requisition was made on the auditor for the amount.

MORE than 30 couples attended the hop at Walton's Opera House Friday night and all had a lovely time. The boys who had just learned how to trip the light fantastic, were on hand very unanimously and did well for the short time that they have been learning which showed that either Charley Carson is a mighty fine teacher or he had very excellent scholars. The following young ladies danced: Misses Mary and Lena Bruce, Ada Shelton, Allie Fish, Annie E. Bright, Annie B. Engleman, Sue and Annie Belle Woods, Willie V. Dawson, Pearl Burnside, Tevis Carpenter, Nell Mershon, Ophelia Lackey, Kate Alcorn, Isabella Dudley, Nannie Vandever, Mary D. Dudder, Delle Feland, Nettie Wray and Mrs. G. C. Keller. Mrs. Dexter Ballou, Mrs. J. M. Alverson, Mrs. J. H. Yeager, Mrs. W. A. Tribble. The gentlemen who took part were: L. R. Hughes, Preston and John Beck, Victor Ballou, Robert Coffey, Morris Farris, Dr. R. A. Jones, C. B. Owens, T. H. and John Shanks, Ernest Warren, G. A. McRoberts, Robert Woods, C. C. Carson, G. C. Keller, Rowan and A. Tribble, Ream Leach, Walker, W. A. Emory, Jr., Ashby Warren, Robert Bruce, Arthur Hill, Forrest McClary, John Lynn, Jr., Bourne Van Arsdale, Pearson Miller, Homer Wray, George Ellis, Lewis and Ed Doty.

LETCHER OWSELEY, ESQ., is being favorably mentioned for election for this district and if he gets his dues he will certainly be chosen. He is the kind of a democrat to honor, being one under any and all circumstances, with no taint of suspicion of mugwump or sympathy with the other side. Lincoln county will be glad to show her appreciation of him.

THE reception given by Miss Anne Hartwell Shanks in honor of the C. W. B. M. of Lincoln county and Junction City Saturday afternoon was attended by 80 members and was in every sense a delightful occasion to them. Mesdames Alice Cloyd, Lou Shanks, J. W. Hayden and Carroll Shanks and Miss Fannie Shanks assisted Miss Anne in receiving and adding to the pleasure of the guests. The rooms were beautifully decorated with palms and carnations. Cards upon which questions pertaining to the society had been printed, were distributed and the ladies asked to answer them. Several gave them correctly and in the cut for the pretty society pin, Mrs. V. B. Morse, of Hustonville, won. Light refreshments, elegantly prepared and served, were enjoyed. Misses Virgie Pickett, Anna Cook and Etta Belle Cloyd served the tea. All the preachers having a board in his church were invited and Revs. Pinkerton, Hagan, Allen and Mills were present. Everyone pronounced it a most enjoyable occasion and left with greater love for the work and for the indefatigable worker, who had so beautifully entertained them.

CUT.—In a fight at Crab Orchard Sunday afternoon, in which James Kennedy, Thomas Lunsford and H. R. Powell were said to have taken part, Powell received an ugly knife wound in the side. He claims that Kennedy cut him.

IN attempting to ford Dix River, which was considerably swollen, Hugh Seargent and his two little daughters had a narrow escape. The wagon was washed a long ways down the stream, one horse was drowned, but by almost superhuman efforts Mr. Seargent saved himself and children from a watery grave.

THE fishing club met at the courthouse Friday night, when most of the 20-odd members were present and a number of committees were appointed. No officers have been elected, but it has been decided that the reservoir shall be fenced in, a boat house built and a number of other improvements made. Another meeting will be held Wednesday night.

THE Odd Fellows had a big time at Danville last night when seven candidates were initiated. Twenty-two went from here, 60 came from Harrodsburg and a number were also present from the Lancaster and Lexington lodges. Grand Master Hess, Grand Secretary R. G. Elliott and Grand Sire M. J. Durham were present. A banquet wound up the evening.

A KNIFE WITH A HISTORY.—Mr. M. T. Russell, of Milledgeville, has a knife which he is satisfied was used in a killing some 65 or 70 years ago. It is a French dirk and is a dangerous looking weapon, but Mr. Russell carries it for farm use instead of protection. Along in the forties two French-Irish gentlemen named McClelland lived on the Wyatt Sandidge place, now owned by Mrs. Mary Johnson, and in a fight, which seems to have been the result of jealousy, one of them stabbed the other to death with a French dirk and throw the knife in a cave on the farm. Mr. Russell knew of the circumstance and when a young man named Gresham, who stated he found the knife in the Sandidge cave, offered to sell it to him he readily purchased it. The horn on the handle partially rotted off during the 60-odd years it laid in the cave, but its present owner, who loves relics, thinks none the less of it on that account and would not sell it for what it originally cost.

STALLED IN THE TUNNEL.—About 11 o'clock Friday the report came over the telephone that a wreck had just occurred in Kings Mountain tunnel and that 30 persons were killed. As soon as we could we communicated with W. L. McCarty there and learned that the trouble had been greatly exaggerated. Gentry Bros. dog and pony show was being taken South on a train drawn by two engines. The smoke and gas in Kings Mountain tunnel proved too much for Engineer O'Brien and Fireman Leighter of the second engine and feeling that they were about to be overcome cut off. This stalled the train and it remained inside for awhile but finally got out. The showmen were greatly frightened, thinking that a serious wreck had occurred and one man died from fright. All were more or less overcome and four had to be taken to a hospital. O'Brien and Leighter were soon resuscitated and taken to their homes in Ludlow and Lexington. The trouble caused considerable delay in that and other trains, but after a few hours the Gentry train was on its way again.
